

PRESS RELEASE
For immediate release

Sophie Prigent succède Raymond Legault as Chair of the board of Fonds d'investissement de la Fund of Culture and Communications

Montreal, November 14, 2014 - The Board of Directors of the Investment Fund of Culture and Communications (IFCC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Sophie Prigent as Chair.

Experienced actress, Sophie Prigent has an impressive track record not only on stage but also in television and on the big screen. Ms. Prigent is president of Union des Artistes since October 2013.

About FICC

Fonds d'investissement de la culture et des communications I.p. (FICC) is a venture capital partnership which started its operations in 1997. FICC provides financial partnerships to Quebec companies in the field of culture, communications and digital. FICC is a limited partnership comprising three limited partners and three general partners. This combination of financial experts, cultural industry specialists and Québec cultural production artisans make FICC a unique organization. To learn more, visit www.ficc.qc.ca

FICC creates job opportunities for artists and artisans Quebec.

-30-

Source : Fonds d'investissement de la culture et des communications, s.e.c.

Renseignements : Maurice Prud'homme
Directeur général
(514) 394-0700 poste 225
mprudhomme@ficc.qc.ca